

Welcome to the Annual Nordic Network Meeting in Fetal Medicine

We are pleased to announce that NNFM25, the annual Nordic Network Meeting in Fetal Medicine, will take place in Denmark from May 19 to 21, 2025, at a beautiful venue in Middelfart.

The meeting brings together leading experts, researchers, and clinicians in fetal medicine and related fields from across the Nordic and Baltic countries to share the latest knowledge, research, and practices. It is a unique opportunity to network, exchange experiences, and discuss the latest advancements in the field.

Date: May 19-21, 2025

Venue: Denmark

We look forward to seeing you at an inspiring and educational meeting.
